

GOVERNMENT OF ANDHRA PRADESH
ABSTRACT

TRIBAL WELFARE DEPARTMENT – Instruction to Heads of Key Development Departments and Senior Secretaries to visit periodically all Tribal Areas and also to make night halts – Orders – Issued.

SOCIAL WELFARE (T.W.Ser.III/A2) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No. 19

Dated:02-02-2011

ORDER:

Effective implementation of Development programmes and protective measures in Tribal Areas has been the priority of Government. Towards this direction, the State Government have taken several measures like implementation in Single Line Administration, posting of young IAS Officers as Project Officers of Integrated Tribal Development Agencies, opening of large number of Ashram Schools and residential schools for Tribals, issue of Tribal Empowerment Policy etc.,

2. In order to strengthen the implementation of schemes, all Development Departments viz. Agriculture, Minor Irrigation, Rural Development, Medical & Health, Horticulture, Rural Water Supply, Tribal Welfare, Education shall pay utmost attention to the programme implementation.

3. The programme implementation needs to be strengthened further in Tribal Sub-plan Areas. In view of the above, during the discussions on good governance in the scheduled areas on Tribes in the presence of His Excellency the Governor of Andhra Pradesh on 16-11-2010, it was advised that all Head of Departments and Senior Secretaries of concerned Departments should visit periodically all Tribal Areas by making night halts and give feed back to the Chief Secretary.

4. Government after careful consideration, issue the following order:

- a) All Secretaries and Heads of Departments of Key Development Departments should visit scheduled areas during their district visits.
- b) During the stay they are requested to take up grass root level inspections of schemes being implemented in their departments.
- c) Hold regular periodic review meetings with the Project Officers and their departmental officers to sort out the issues and ensure timely completion of all works and schemes.
- d) The departments should ensure that 6.7% of the funds of their departments are effectively spent in Tribal Sub-plan area.
- e) The departments should fill up vacancies relating to the department in tribal areas on priority.
